

Can I visit other places as part of my BMS studies?

Yes, there are various options and possibilities, ranging from short visits to conferences, or for discussing with mathematicians whose work is relevant for your project -- to longer stays up to one semester abroad. If this seems good for you and your studies, and is supported by your advisor/mentor, then BMS will try to make it possible!